Introduction

1. These Guidelines for the Limerick Mayoral election in respect of the obligations of candidates, mayoral election agents, third parties and “other persons” have been published by the Standards in Public Office Commission (the “Standards Commission”) under section 4 of the Electoral Act 1997 (the “1997 Act”<sup>1</sup>). These Guidelines contain references to relevant sections of the 1997 Act to assist candidates in cross-referencing the Guidelines with the relevant legislative provisions. All such references should be understood as referring to the provisions of the 1997 Act (as amended), and any references to the provisions of any other statutory enactment will specifically reference such other enactment.
2. The Guidelines are legally binding. However, where there is a discrepancy between the guidelines and the 1997 Act, the 1997 Act prevails.
3. These Guidelines cover the main requirements of the above legislation for candidates and mayoral election agents in the 2024 Limerick Mayoral election relating to:
  - disclosure of political donations;
  - limits on the value of donations which may be accepted;
  - prohibited donations;
  - limits on election spending;
  - reimbursement of election expenses to qualified candidates.

Candidates may wish to note that the Electoral Reform Act 2022 made various amendments to the 1997 Act, some of which are not yet commenced. As these Guidelines relate specifically to the 2024 Limerick Mayoral election, the Guidelines describe the law as currently commenced and do not refer to provisions yet to be commenced.

Candidates should also be aware of the provisions of the Local Government (Mayor of Limerick) and Miscellaneous Provisions Act 2024 (the “2024 Act”) in respect of any matters falling outside the scope of these Guidelines.

<sup>1</sup> A reference to the 1997 Act refers to the Electoral Act 1997 as amended by the Electoral (Amendment) Act 1998, Local Elections (Disclosure of Donations and Expenditure) Act 1999, Electoral (Amendment) Act 2001, Local Government Act 2001, Electoral (Amendment) Act 2002, Local Government (No. 2) Act 2003, Electoral (Amendment) Act 2004, Electoral (Amendment) Act 2005, Electoral (Amendment) Act 2007, Electoral (Amendment) Act 2009, Ministers and Secretaries (Amendment) Act 2011, Electoral (Amendment) Act 2011, Electoral (Amendment) (Political Funding) Act 2012, Gaeltacht Act 2012, Electoral, Local Government and Planning and Development Act 2013, Local Government Reform Act 2014, Court of Appeal Act 2014, Electoral (Amendment) Act 2015, the Electoral Reform Act 2022 and the Local Government (Mayor of Limerick) and Miscellaneous Provisions Act 2024.

The Role of the Commission

Advice

- The Standards Commission may under section 4(6)(b) of the 1997 Act provide advice on compliance to persons including candidates and mayoral election agents who are covered by the provisions of the Act.
- Advice may be sought from the Standards Commission concerning any provision of the 1997 Act or the application of such provision in any particular circumstance. If a person is in any doubt about any aspect of the 1997 Act, he or she should contact the Standards Commission. Advice is given either in writing (including by e-mail) or by responding to telephone enquiries.
- Advice is provided at the discretion of the Standard Commission. The circumstances where advice may not be provided include:
  - where there is insufficient information to advise the requester;
  - where the request for advice relates to a matter which is outside the expertise of the Standards Commission e.g. accountancy queries;
  - where the request for advice relates to a matter which is under examination by the Standards Commission.
- The Standards Commission recommends that advice should be sought immediately if a matter arises about which there is uncertainty. By doing so, it is less likely that the issue will cause a difficulty later.
- A person must act in accordance with guidelines or advice published or given by the Standards Commission unless, by so doing, they would be contravening another provision of the 1997 Act.

Review

- The Commission considers every donation and election statement (along with the supporting documentation) furnished to it.
- Where the Commission finds a minor error or omission in a statement, it will furnish details of the error or omission to the person who provided the statement and it inform them that he or she may correct the error or make good the omission within the period of 14 days from the date on which the notification issued.
- Where, following consideration by it of a statement, the Standards Commission is of the opinion that a contravention of the legislation may have occurred, it is required to notify the person who provided the statement of the possible contravention and afford him/her 14 days to furnish any comments he/she may have.
- The Standards Commission will consider the comments provided by that person and, if it is still of the opinion that a contravention of the legislation has occurred, the current position is that the Standards Commission will furnish a report on the matter, together with any relevant documentation, to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

Inquiry

- The Standards Commission is entitled to make such inquiries as it considers appropriate and may require any person to furnish any information, document or thing in the possession or procurement of the person which the Standards Commission may require for the purpose of its duties under the legislation.
- Where a person fails to comply with an inquiry requirement within a reasonable time, the Standards Commission may direct the person to comply with the inquiry within a particular period of time. Information provided as part of a direction by person is not admissible in proceedings brought against that person for an offence.
- Failure to comply with a direction of the Commission is an offence.
- Where a person is charged with the offence of failing to comply with a direction of the Commission, it is a defence to show that the information, document or thing which was the subject of the direction was not in that person's possession or control and it was not reasonably practicable for them to comply with the direction.

Reporting a contravention of the 1997 Act

- Where a person wishes to provide the Standards Commission with information regarding a potential contravention of the 1997 Act, they may do so by contacting the Secretariat of the Standards Commission at info@sipo.ie. Reports of information will be acknowledged and reviewed. Such reports may form part of the Standards Commission's consideration as to whether it will exercise its powers under the 1997 Act.
- The 1997 Act does not provide for a complaints mechanism regarding a potential contravention of the 1997 Act. Reporters of information will not be provided with the outcome of the Standards Commission's considerations.
- Where a specified person, with the meaning of section 4 of the Standards in Public Office Act 2001, may have contravened a provision of the 1997 Act, a person may submit a complaint to the Standards Commission under the Ethics in Public Office Act 1995 and the Standards in Public Office Act 2001 and will be dealt with in accordance with the Standards Commission's ethics complaints process.

Chapter 1 – Candidates and third parties

The following are the key issues of which candidates should be aware in order to ensure compliance with the requirements of the legislation.

- 1.1. Appointment of a mayoral election agent
- 1.2. Donations
- 1.3. Prohibited Donations
- 1.4. Opening and maintaining a political donations account
- 1.5. Persons who may be incurring unauthorised expenditure
- 1.6. Furnishing the required statutory documentation
- 1.7. Claiming a reimbursement of election expenses
- 1.8. Offences and penalties

1.1 Appointment of a mayoral election agent

- 1.1.1 Each candidate must appoint a mayoral election agent, which may be him/herself or another person [Section 99(1)(a)]. The mayoral election agent, for the purposes of this Act, is the person who will be responsible for accounting for expenditure on the candidate's campaign. The mayoral election agent appointed under this Act need not necessarily be the same person who may be appointed to be present on the candidate's behalf at the issue of ballot papers, in polling stations, at the opening of postal ballot boxes and at the counting of votes. Candidates or their mayoral election agent may appoint separate subsidiary 'agents' for these purposes (paragraph 31 of Schedule 2 to the 2024 Act).
- 1.1.2 A candidate may act as his/her own mayoral election agent [Section 99(1)(b)]. If a candidate does not notify the Mayoral Returning Officer of the appointment of a mayoral election agent by the deadline for withdrawing as a candidate, he/she will be deemed to be acting as his/her own mayoral election agent [Section 99(1)(c)]. A candidate who acts as his/her own mayoral election agent will also be required to comply with the provisions of the Act applying to mayoral election agents [Section 99(8)] (see Chapter 2).
- 1.1.3 Ideally, the appointment of the candidate's mayoral election agent should be made before any election expenses are incurred. If election expenses are incurred before the mayoral election agent is appointed, the candidate must give the mayoral election agent details of any such expenses together with all relevant invoices/receipts [Section 101(6)]. Failure to comply is an offence.
- 1.1.4 Candidates should give careful consideration to the appointment of a mayoral election agent. The mayoral election agent should be comfortable with keeping accounts. He/she must maintain proper records of all transactions relating to spending on the candidate's election campaign and retain receipts, invoices or vouchers for inspection, and for public display, by the Standards Commission.
- 1.1.5 The candidate must notify the Mayoral Returning Officer for the constituency, in writing, of the name of the mayoral election agent and the address of the office of the agent. This must be done not later than the last day for receiving nominations at the election, 12 noon, 18 May 2024 [Section 99(1)(a)(ii)].

The Mayoral Returning Officer shall as soon as may be notify the Commission in writing and give public notice of the name and the address of the office of every mayoral election agent appointed or deemed to have been appointed under this section. The Mayoral Returning Officer will inform the Standards Commission of the name and address of the mayoral election agent appointed. It is very important that candidates ensure that the person notified to the Returning Officer is the person they intend having as their mayoral election agent (i.e., the person who will be responsible for accounting for expenditure on the candidate's campaign). The Standards Commission will accept an Election Expenses Statement only from the person notified to it by the Returning Officer as the candidate's mayoral election agent.

- 1.1.6 A candidate's mayoral election agent can authorise other people, including the candidate, to incur expenses or make payments in connection with the candidate's campaign. A person who is authorised in this way is entitled to incur expenses or make payments only within the specific financial limit laid down by the mayoral election agent [Section 101(3)]. The candidate's mayoral election agent or a person authorised by the candidate's mayoral election agent are the only persons who can incur expenses or make payments in connection with the candidate's election campaign [Section 101(3)]. The mayoral election agent must subsequently account for such expenses or payments.
- 1.1.7 A candidate may, at any time, revoke the appointment of a mayoral election agent (including his/her own appointment as mayoral election agent) [Section 99(2)]. Where the appointment of a mayoral election agent has been revoked, it is the candidate who must notify the Mayoral Returning Officer in writing of the name and address of the new mayoral election agent [Section 99(5)] (including the candidate's own details if he/she intends to act as his/her own mayoral election agent [Section 99(1)(b)]).

The Mayoral Returning Officer must then advise the Standards Commission in writing of the change of mayoral election agent and his/her contact details.

The Standards Commission cannot accept an Election Expenses Statement (EES) if the mayoral election agent notified to it by the Returning Officer does not match the name of the mayoral election agent on the EES.

1.2 Donations

(a) Keeping a record of donations

- 1.2.1 It is the candidate who is required to comply with the requirements of the Act regarding the recording and disclosure of donations. It is important, therefore, that candidates keep a record of donations received in relation to the election for the purposes of furnishing a Donation Statement to the Standards Commission after the election (see section 1.7). Candidates should know the name, address, description, citizenship and postal address of the donor, date on which donation was received, whether the donation was requested (and if so name and address of person who requested it) and whether a receipt issued in respect of the donation (and if so date of receipt and name of receipt issuer) [Section 95(1)].
- 1.2.2 The candidate is also responsible for ensuring that donations accepted by him/her are not prohibited under the Act (see section 1.4). This is particularly important where donations are received online. Where a candidate is accepting donations through a website he/she must ensure that he/she can properly identify the source of the donation and that he/she is not prohibited from accepting a donation from the donor. It is also important for disclosure purposes and for the purposes of adhering to the maximum acceptance limit that the candidate has a system in place which will aggregate all donations from the same donor (by credit card, debit card etc.) and/or received by other means.
- 1.2.3 The Commission advises that, if a candidate is using a crowd funding service, they should make it clear to donors that the acceptance of prohibited donations is not permitted. The candidate may seek to work with the service to put in place measures to support this.

(b) What is a donation?

1.2.4 A donation as defined in the Act [Section 93(1)] includes any contribution given within or outside the State for political purposes by any person (including a subsidiary organisation that has an office outside the State), to any member of either House of the Oireachtas; the Mayor of Limerick; a member of the European Parliament; a candidate at a Dáil, Seanad, Limerick Mayoral, European or Presidential election; a presidential election agent; a third party; a political party or a sub-unit of a political party (e.g. all branches, accounting units, cumann, a Comhairle Dáil Ceantair or any other sub-unit of a party, etc.), and includes all or any of the following, namely:

- a donation of money;
- a donation of property or goods, e.g. a donation in kind;
- the free use of property or goods without payment in money or in kind - a free supply of services without payment in money or in kind;
- the difference between the usual commercial price and the (lower) price charged for the purchase, acquisition or use of property or goods, or the supply of any service, where the price, fee or other consideration is less than the usual commercial price (this can include a loan provided by a third party or by a financial institution at terms and conditions which are more favourable than that provided by a financial institution to other individuals in the normal course of business);
- a contribution made by a person to a fund-raising event organised for the purpose of raising funds for a candidate or a political party. The donation is the net profit from the event. Donations are deemed to have been received on the date of the actual fund-raiser (and not when actually received). A detailed explanation of this is in Chapter 3;
- a payment by the person on their own behalf, or on behalf of one or more than one other person, of a fee or subscription for membership or continued membership of a political party (membership fees include any membership fees/levies/subscriptions paid to any sub-unit of a political party);

1.2.5 Notional donations or donations in kind are where a person/organisation pays for work/expenses from its own resources (i.e. not party funds) then this is considered a donation of the notional value/cost of the work/expenses. Donations in kind or notional donations are to be valued at the usual commercial price charged for the purchase, use or acquisition of the property or goods or the supply of any service donated.

1.2.6 A donation made to a candidate at a Limerick mayoral election through an intermediary, agent or other person acting for the candidate shall be deemed to be a donation made to the candidate directly, unless the donation is passed on to the political party of which he/she is a member and a written acknowledgement is received by the candidate, in which case the donation is deemed to be a donation to the political party [Section 22(2)(c)(ii)].

1.2.7 If the same person makes more than one donation to a Member, candidate, sub-unit or political party, the values of the donations must be aggregated and treated as a single donation for the purpose of observing both the disclosure and the maximum acceptance limits applying to donations. [Section 22(2)(d)]

1.2.8 If more than one member of the same family, or other group, make donations to the same Member, Limerick Mayor, candidate or mayoral election agent, sub-unit or political party, including where donations of money are made from a joint account in a financial institution, it must be clear that these are separate donations from each of the individuals/party concerned. Otherwise, the values of the donations must be aggregated and treated as a single donation for disclosure purposes and for the purpose of observing the maximum limit applying to the acceptance of donations.

Similarly, if a company and any of its directors make a donation to the same Member, candidate or mayoral election agent, sub-unit or political party, it must be clear that these are separate donations. In such circumstances the Standards Commission may look for evidence that the donations are from separate legal entities. In each case, the mayoral election agent and/or candidate, sub-unit or political party must make whatever enquiries are necessary in order to determine the source of the donation.

1.2.9 A donation made to a candidate at a Limerick mayoral election through an intermediary, agent or other person acting for the candidate shall be deemed to be a donation made to the candidate directly, unless the donation is passed on to the political party of which he/she is a member. In this case a written acknowledgement must be received by the candidate for the donation to be deemed to be a donation to the political party [Section 22(2)(c)(ii)].

1.2.10 A "person" [Section 2(1)] can be:

- an individual;
- a body corporate (e.g., a public or private company) and any subsidiary thereof. Where donations are received from associated companies the candidate should enquire from the donors whether one or other of the companies is a subsidiary of the other;
- an unincorporated body of persons, e.g., a political party, a partnership, a residents' association, a lobby group.

A "corporate donor" is defined [Section 22(2)(aa)] as including:

- a body corporate;
- an unincorporated body of persons; or
- a trust which makes a donation. A body corporate and any subsidiary thereof are deemed to be one person.

1.2.11 Donations with a value, or donations from the same person with an aggregate value of more than €600 must be disclosed [Section 24(4)]. Where the same person makes more than one donation to a candidate in relation to the election, the values of the donations must be aggregated and treated as a single donation for disclosure purposes [Section 22(2)(d)].

1.2.12 A donation to a candidate also includes money given to a candidate by his/her political party [Section 22(2)(b)(vi)].

(c) What is not a donation?

1.2.13 Items that are not regarded as donations to a candidate include [Section 22(2)(b)]:

- free post service provided to candidates by An Post [Section 22(2)(b)(i)];

- any payment, service or facility provided to the candidate out of public funds or moneys provided by an institution of the European Communities or other intergovernmental organisation to which the State is a party, pursuant to specified legislation, by virtue of the candidate being:
  - a representative in the European Parliament;
  - a member of Dáil or Seanad Éireann;
  - the holder of a qualifying office or position;
  - the holder of an elective or other public office; or
  - a member of, delegate to, or representative in a body established by or under an agreement or arrangement to which the State is a party;
- It is important to note that this provision only applies where the candidate by virtue of his/her position or office, is entitled to use the services/facilities provided out of public funds. Holders of elected/public office are reminded that facilities provided to them e.g. prepaid envelopes, stationery, office accommodation, telephones, etc. are provided solely for their own use for representational purposes and use for electoral purposes must be accounted for in accordance with Chapter 3 of these guidelines.
- a free service provided by an individual, including use of the individual's motor vehicle, private telephone, etc., where the service provided is not part of the individual's work or business and provided that the individual is not, directly or indirectly, paid by any other person for that service or to facilitate the provision of the service.
  - It is important to note that the reference in this particular provision of the Act Section 22(2)(b)(iii)(I) is specific to an individual and to the use of an individual's motor vehicle (singular). If more than one vehicle is provided by an individual, the additional vehicles may be regarded as donations and as election expenses. If a vehicle which is in the ownership of a company, partnership, business etc., is provided to a candidate, it is not regarded as a free service provided by an individual. In such circumstances the use of the vehicle is regarded as a donation and as an election expense. The commercial cost of hiring a similar vehicle for a similar period must be ascertained for the purposes of disclosing its value as a donation and for the purposes of disclosing its use during the election period, as an election expense [Section 22(2)(b)(iii)(I)];
- a service provided at an election by an employee of a political party (other than an individual in the employment of a subsidiary organisation of that party that has an office outside the State), including use of the individual's motor vehicle, where the employee's remuneration is paid out of party resources or out of public funds and where the employee is not in receipt of any reward or benefit-in-kind other than his/her normal remuneration (including recoupment of expenses) for that service [Section 22(2)(b)(iii)(II)];

- normal media coverage and the transmission on radio or television of a broadcast on behalf of the candidate [Section 22(2)(b)(iv) &(v)]; [This does not cover any production, or other costs associated with such a broadcast.];
- expenses incurred or payments made by a political party on behalf of member of either House of the Oireachtas or representative in the European Parliament, other than a donation of money [Section 22(2)(b)(vi)];
- election expenses incurred by a political party on behalf of a candidate authenticated by the political party at a Dáil or European election or funds provided to such candidate by the political party in relation to those expenses, or
- The services of an accountant, or other person, who is engaged for the specific purpose of assisting compliance with the requirements of the legislation;
- the services of personation officers on polling day.
- any payment, contribution or supply of goods or services (without payment or other consideration or at less than the commercial price) given outside the State by a person to a political party and accepted by that political party in accordance with the laws of the state in which it is accepted and, where it is a monetary payment or contribution, is kept or retained in a separate designated fund.

This means that where a donation is given to a political party which is registered in the State but the donation is given to the party outside the State for use outside the State and accepted by that political party in accordance with the laws of the state in which it is accepted and, where it is a monetary payment or contribution, is kept or retained in a separate designated fund, it is not regarded as a donation for the purposes of the 1997 Act. Such donations are not required to be disclosed and are not subject to the prohibitions attaching to certain types of donations under the 1997 Act.

(d) Expenses incurred by an organisation or body (other than a registered political party)

1.2.14 Expenses incurred by a political party on behalf of a candidate are not regarded as a donation to the candidate [Section 22(2)(b)(vi)]. A political party is defined in the 1997 Act as a party registered in the Register of Political Parties (in accordance with Chapter 6 of Part 2 of the Electoral Reform Act 2022) as a party organised to contest a Dáil, European and/or Limerick Mayoral election. If an organisation is not registered in the Register of Political Parties as a party organised to contest a Dáil or European election, it is not regarded as a political party for the purposes of the 1997 Act.

(e) Loans to candidates

1.2.15 Where a loan is provided to a candidate by a financial institution and the normal rules attaching to such loans apply, the loan is not regarded as a donation to the candidate. However, where a loan is provided to a candidate by a financial institution in circumstances where either the interest charged is less than the lowest rate available from the financial institution at that time or the loan is not repaid in accordance with the terms and conditions under which the loan was issued or is only partially repaid, the benefit to the candidate may be regarded as a donation and may, therefore, be subject to the disclosure and maximum limits applying to the acceptance of donations.

1.2.16 Where an individual or body, who or which is not a financial institution, gives a loan to a candidate, it must be evident that the loan offered is a bona fide loan. In that regard the following would apply:

- as with a loan from a financial institution, the terms and conditions applying to the loan and its repayment must be stated clearly in writing.
- interest is chargeable on the loan at a rate (whether fixed or variable) which reflects the interest charged by financial institutions on loans of a similar amount and duration. Where the interest charged is less than the lowest rate available from a financial institution at that time, the benefit accruing from the difference in rates is regarded as a donation to the candidate.
- the Standards Commission may require sight of the terms and conditions, including the interest charge, applying to the loan and may require confirmation that the loan has been repaid in accordance with these terms and conditions. If the loan is not repaid in accordance with the terms and conditions, or is only partly repaid, the benefit of such non-repayment may be regarded as a donation to the candidate.

1.3 Prohibited donations

This section includes information on donations the acceptance of which is prohibited under the 1997 Act. A person who receives and fails to address the receipt of a prohibited donation in the manner specified in these guidelines and in the 1997 Act will be guilty of an offence. For more information on offences, see the relevant section below.

(a) Anonymous donations

1.3.1 Acceptance of an anonymous donation by a candidate or a third party exceeding a value of €100 is prohibited [Section 94(1)].

A donation is anonymous if a candidate or a third party does not know the name of the donor and the address at which he/she ordinarily resides. Where a donation is made by an Intermediary, the name and address of the original donor is required. The onus is on the recipient to ensure that the name and address of the donor is known. If a prohibited anonymous donation is received by a candidate, the particulars of the donation must be specified by the mayoral election agent in the mayoral election donation statement [under section 95(1)] and in the certificate [under section 97(2)(b)] furnished to the Standards Commission.

If a prohibited anonymous donation is received by a third party, the particulars of the donation must be specified by the third party in the certificate [under section 97(3)(b)] furnished to the Standards Commission.

The donation or its value must also be remitted immediately by the candidate or the third party to the Standards Commission [Section 94(2)].

(b) Cash donations in excess of €200

1.3.2 Acceptance of a cash donation exceeding €200 in value is prohibited [Section 23A(1)(c)(iii)].

1.3.3 If a cash donation exceeding €200 is received, the recipient of the donation must, within 14 days of receipt of the donation, return the donation to the donor or the part of it exceeding the limit and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission<sup>2</sup>, if required;

or,

the recipient must, within fourteen days of receipt, notify the Standards Commission of receipt of the donation and remit the donation or the part of it exceeding the limit to the Standards Commission [Section 23A(5)].

(c) Donations by non-registered corporate donor in excess of €200

1.3.4 It is prohibited to accept a donation exceeding €200 in value from a corporate donor [Section 23AA(1)(c)] unless the corporate donor is registered in the Register of Corporate Donors maintained by the Commission [Section 23AA(1)(i)] and a statement is made on behalf of the corporate donor (and furnished with the donation to the donee) confirming that the making of the donation was approved by the corporate donor<sup>3</sup> [Section 23AA(1)(ii)].

The statement must be accompanied by a statutory declaration that to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person concerned, the statement is correct in every material respect and that the person has taken all reasonable action in order to satisfy him/herself as to the accuracy of the statement [Section 23AA(2)].

1.3.5 If a donation is received from a non-registered corporate donor, the recipient of the donation must, within 14 days of receipt of the donation, return the donation to the donor or, if it is a monetary donation, the part of it exceeding the limit and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards

a) that a general meeting, one of the purposes of which is to consider making a donation, has been duly convened and conducted and approval for making the donation has been given in accordance with the rules (whether in writing or not) governing the administration and control of the corporate donor concerned and regulating its activities and such rules shall include:

(ii) in the case of a company, the memorandum and articles of the company,

(iii) in the case of a body corporate other than a company, the charter, statute, or other like instrument by which it is established,

(iv) in the case of an unincorporated body of persons, the rules of the body,

b) that a donation is made by a trustee in accordance with the deed of trust establishing the trust concerned which deed of trust permits the making of such a donation

Commission, if required<sup>4</sup>;

or,

the recipient must, within fourteen days of receipt, notify the Standards Commission of receipt of the donation and remit the donation or, if it is a monetary donation the part of it exceeding the limit to the Standards Commission. [Section 23AA(6)]

(d) Donations from outside of Ireland

1.3.6 A candidate must not accept a donation of whatever value, given by an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland or by a body corporate or unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which the carrying out of one or more of its principal activities is directed. [Section 23A(2)]

The onus is on the recipient of the donation to satisfy him/herself that the donor is an Irish citizen.

1.3.7 A prohibited donation from outside of Ireland must be notified and remitted to the Standards Commission by the candidate within 14 days of its receipt.

As an alternative, the candidate may return the donation to the donor [Section 23A(5)]. If the donation is returned, the candidate must keep a written record of that return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required<sup>5</sup>.

(e) Donations in excess of the prescribed limit

1.3.8 The maximum value of donation(s) which may be accepted by a candidate from a particular person in a particular calendar year, either directly or through an intermediary, is €1,000 [Section 23A(1)(i)].

Where a person makes more than one donation to a candidate in a particular year the values of the donations must be aggregated for the purpose of observing the maximum limit [Section 23A(3)].

1.3.9 The maximum limit of €1,000 does not apply to a constituency office provided to the candidate by a person or, if more than one such office is provided, to whichever of the offices is nominated in writing by the candidate [Section 23A(4)].

It is important to note that although the maximum limit may not apply to a donation of a constituency office, such a donation must be disclosed if the value exceeds €600 [Section 24(4)].

1.3.10 The maximum limit does, however, apply to monetary donations received by a candidate from his/her political party [Section 22(2)(b)(vi)].

Donations of money from any branch of the party (including party headquarters) must be aggregated for the purpose of observing the maximum limit and treated as a single donation from the party [Section 22(2)(c) and 22(2)(d)(ii)].

<sup>5</sup> The 1997 Act does not prescribe how long a recipient should retain the records of the return. However, the Standards Commission advise that records should be retained for a minimum of 6 years.

1.3.11 Where a donation is received and is prohibited because its value is over the limit, the candidate must notify the Standards Commission within 14 days of its receipt and remit the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which is over the limit, to the Standards Commission [Section 23A(5)(b)].

As an alternative, the candidate may return the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which is over the limit, to the donor and keep a written record of that return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required [Section 23A(5)(a)].<sup>6</sup>

(f) Donations in the form of cryptocurrency

1.3.12 A candidate is prohibited from accepting a donation in the form of cryptocurrency. Where such a donation is received it must be notified and remitted to the Standards Commission by the candidate within 14 days of its receipt. As an alternative, the candidate may return the donation to the donor [Section 23A(5)]. If the donation is returned, the candidate must keep a written record of that return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required.<sup>7</sup>

(g) Other prohibited donations

1.3.13 A candidate is prohibited from accepting a donation if he or she knows or has reason to believe that the person making the donation does not intend complying with his/her obligations under the 1997 Act.

Section 24(1A) of the 1997 Act provides that individual donors who make donations, with a total value in excess of €1,500 in any calendar year, to two or more members of the same political party (or to a political party and one or more of its members), are themselves required to furnish a Donation Statement and Statutory Declaration to the Standards Commission disclosing details of the donations. If the donor in question does not intend to comply with this requirement, and if a candidate is aware of this, the candidate is prohibited from accepting a donation from the donor [Section 24A(2)].

1.3.14 If such a prohibited donation is received by a candidate, the Standards Commission must be notified by the candidate within 14 days of its receipt and the name and address of the donor. The donation, or its value, must also be remitted by the candidate to the Standards Commission [Section 24A(3)].<sup>8</sup>

1.4 Opening and maintaining a political donations account

1.4.1 If a candidate at a Limerick mayoral election receives, for the purposes of the Limerick mayoral election, a monetary donation, the value of which exceeds €100 before the appointment by him or her of a mayoral election agent, he/she must open and maintain a political donations account in a financial institution in the State [Section 97(1)(a)]. candidate must lodge that donation and any further monetary donations, of whatever value, received by him/her or by his/her mayoral election agent to that account. The account should be separate from any other personal account held by the candidate. The name of the account should refer to the candidate's election campaign and the candidate should be an authorised signatory on the account. All monies withdrawn from the account must be used for promoting the election of the candidate or otherwise affecting the outcome of the said election [Section 97(2)(b)(ii)].

- 1.4.2 If a candidate already operates a political donations account he/she should not open a separate political donations account specifically for the election. The candidate should ensure, instead, that all monetary donations, of whatever value, received in relation to the election are lodged to his/her existing political donations account. If the candidate wishes to open a specific "election account" he/she can transfer money from his/her political donations account to the election account. Monies transferred to an election account could be regarded as having been used for electoral purposes.
- 1.4.3 Where a monetary donation exceeding €100 is received by a candidate or his/her mayoral election agent after the appointment of the election agent, the mayoral election agent must open a political donations account and lodge to that account the first donation and any further monetary donations, of whatever value, received by the candidate or the mayoral election agent. [Section 97(1)(b)].
- 1.4.4 On the basis of the above, it is possible that both the candidate and the mayoral election agent will be required to open a political donations account for the mayoral election. In these circumstances, all monetary donations, of whatever value, received by the candidate or the mayoral election agent, after the opening of the mayoral election agent's political donations account, should be lodged to the mayoral election agent's account. Both accounts of the candidate and the mayoral election agent must be disclosed in the mayoral election donation statement. [Section 97(2)].
- 1.4.5 It should be noted that the elected Mayor of Limerick will have an ongoing requirement to maintain his/her political donations account and will be required, on an annual basis, to furnish documentation relating to the account to the Standards Commission.
- 1.4.6 If a third party in relation to promoting a candidate at a Limerick mayoral election receives, for the purposes of that election, a monetary donation, the value of which exceeds €100, it must open and maintain a political donations account in a financial institution in the State [Section 97(1)(c)]. The third party must lodge that donation and any further monetary donations, of whatever value, received by it agent to that account.

1.5 Persons who may be incurring unauthorised expenditure to promote/oppose candidates at the election

- 1.5.1 It is an offence for a candidate, or anybody else, including, for example, a local branch of a political party, to incur expenses or make payments in connection with a candidate's campaign if this is not authorised by the candidate's mayoral election agent. This includes accepting a donation of election material or a service, e.g., leaflets or advertising, either free or below commercial price.

- 1.5.2 Notices or advertisements in newspapers, magazines or other periodical publications which promote or oppose (directly or indirectly) the interests of a candidate at a Limerick mayoral election may be placed only if requested by a candidate, a candidate's mayoral election agent, or a person authorised in writing by the candidate or the mayoral election agent [Section 101(8)(a)].
- 1.5.3 "Third parties" or "other persons" may place notices or advertisements in newspapers, magazines or periodical publications if they produce to the publisher a Certificate of Authorisation from the Standards Commission confirming that they have complied with their legal obligations [Section 101(8)(b)]. This Certificate is issued by the Standards Commission when all the relevant information is received from the third party/other person. The Standards Commission will notify publishers of the requirements of the 1997 Act in this regard.
- 1.5.4 Each candidate is advised to be aware of any such expenditure being incurred on his/her behalf by directors of elections or other persons. If a candidate becomes aware that a person, other than his/her mayoral election agent, is incurring expenses on his/her behalf at the election, the candidate should ensure that this has been authorised by the mayoral election agent. If it has not been authorised, the person incurring the expenses would be committing an offence unless a certificate to incur the expenses has been issued to the person by the Standards Commission. If necessary, the candidate should bring the matter to the attention of the Standards Commission and appropriate action will be taken.
- 1.5.5 As the 2024 local elections are being held on the same day as the Limerick mayoral election, Limerick mayoral election candidates will need to be particularly aware of local election candidates who may be including a reference to the Limerick mayoral election candidate in their local election promotional material and advertising. Where such references are included, it is regarded as promoting the candidacy of the Limerick mayoral election candidate and as expenditure incurred on behalf of the Limerick mayoral election candidate. Where the full cost of the promotional material or advertising is borne by the local election candidate, the cost of the % of the Limerick mayoral election candidate's feature in such material/advertising is regarded as a donation to the Limerick mayoral election candidate by the local election candidate.
- 1.5.6 A local election candidate, director of elections, etc., who intends to include a reference to a Limerick mayoral election candidate in local election promotional material, advertising, etc., must be authorised to do so by the Limerick mayoral election candidate's mayoral election agent. A person who incurs such expenditure on behalf of a Limerick mayoral election candidate without being authorised to do so, may be guilty of an offence.

1.6 Furnishing the required statutory documentation after the election

1.6.1 The mayoral election agent of each candidate must, within 56 days after polling day (i.e., by 2 August 2024), furnish to the Standards Commission a Donation Statement and Statutory Declaration [Section 95(1)(a) and Section 95(2)].

The Donation Statement must give details of all donations received in relation to the election with a value greater than €600 [Section 95(1)(a)]. Donations made by the same person to the same candidate in relation to the election must be aggregated and treated as a single donation. It should be noted that "in relation to the election" means donations received at any time in relation to the election including before the issuing of the writ appointing polling day.

Where a donation (or the excess amount) is returned to the donor or remitted to the Standards Commission, and the amount of the donation is in excess of €600, it must be disclosed on the donation statement. A note should be attached indicating that it (or the excess amount) was returned or remitted to the Standards Commission.

1.6.2 The Donation Statement and Statutory Declaration must be furnished whether or not the candidate received a donation. If no donation was received, a "nil" return must be made to the Standards Commission.

1.6.3 If a monetary donation in excess of €100 was received and the candidate was required to open a political donations account (see paragraph above), or if the candidate already had a political donations account, the Donation Statement must be accompanied by a statement provided by the financial institution where the account is held (bank statement) [Section 97(2)(a)].

If a new political donations account was opened the bank statement must specify the transactions (i.e. lodgements and withdrawals) that have taken place in relation to the account during the period beginning on the date of opening of the account and ending on polling day at the election. If an existing political donations account was already in use the bank statement must specify the transactions which have taken place on the account since 1 January 2024. The Donation Statement must also be accompanied by a Certificate of Monetary Donations certifying that all monetary donations received after the account was opened were lodged to the account and all amounts debited from the account were used for political purposes [Section 97(2)(b)(i)]. The Certificate must be signed by the candidate and must be accompanied by a separate Statutory Declaration [Section 97(4)].

1.6.4 Failure to send a Donation Statement and all accompanying documentation to the Standards Commission within 56 days of polling day is an offence [Section 113(1)].

1.6.5 The Standards Commission Secretariat will contact candidates after the election and will make available the relevant:

- Donation Statement/Statutory Declaration form
- Certificate of Monetary Donation/Statutory Declaration.

Assistance in completing the forms, including advice in relation to what is or is not a donation in any particular case, will also be available on request.

1.6.6 Each donation statement and accompanying statutory declaration will be laid by the Standards Commission before both Houses of the Oireachtas and will be made available for inspection and published on the Standards Commission's website as soon as they have been laid [sections 24(7), 73 and 108(1)]. Each statement from a financial institution and accompanying certificate and statutory declaration will be retained by the Standards Commission and will not be disclosed to any person unless subject to a Court Order to do so or where such disclosure would be required in connection with an investigation held by the Standards Commission [sections 23B(8) and 97(5)]. Details of donations disclosed will be published on the website of the Standards Commission.

1.6.7 If a candidate is elected at the election, he/she will be required, as the Mayor of Limerick, to furnish an annual Donation Statement and Statutory Declaration and accompanying documentation to the Standards Commission by 31 January each year [Section 24(1)(a)]. Forms for this purpose will be made available to the Mayor of Limerick by the Standards Commission in early January each year.

1.6.8 The Donation Statement/Statutory Declaration and accompanying documentation submitted by mayoral election agents must include donations with a value, or aggregate value from the same person, greater than €600 received during the previous calendar year. The statement from the financial institution must specify the transactions that have taken place on the account during the previous calendar year.

(c) Third parties

1.6.9 A third party must, within 56 days after polling day (i.e., by 2 August 2024), furnish to the Standards Commission a Certificate of Monetary Donations, which must be accompanied by a statement provided by the financial institution where the account is held (bank statement). The Certificate of Monetary Donations must certify that all monetary donations received after the account was opened were lodged to the account and all amounts debited from the account were account have been applied for the purpose of promoting the election of a candidate, or otherwise affecting the outcome of the election [Section 97(3)(b)(ii)]. The Certificate must be signed by the responsible person for the third party and must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration [Section 97(4)]. The bank statement must specify the transactions (i.e. lodgements and withdrawals) that have taken place in relation to the account during the period beginning on the date of opening of the account and ending on polling day at the election [Section 97(3)(a)].

1.7 Claiming a reimbursement of election expenses

1.7.1 A qualified candidate is entitled to apply for a reimbursement of election expenses. In order to qualify for a reimbursement, a candidate:

- is elected at the election; or
- is not so elected but the greatest number of votes credited to him or her at any stage of the counting of votes at the election exceeds one quarter of the quota [Section 107(1)(b)]

1.7.2 The maximum amount which may be reimbursed is the lesser of €18,500 or the actual amount of the election expenses incurred on behalf of the candidate [Section 107(1)].

1.7.3 In calculating the amount of the reimbursement it should be noted that account may be taken of:

- expenses incurred on behalf of the candidate and accounted for by the candidate's mayoral election agent; and
- expenses incurred on behalf of the candidate by the candidate's political party and accounted for by the national agent [Section 107(8)].

1.7.4 In order to certify a reimbursement of a qualified candidate's election expenses, the Standards Commission must have received the following documentation:

- completed mayoral election agent's Election Expenses Statement/Statutory Declaration [Section 106(1)(a)];
- supporting invoices, vouchers or receipts and
- in the case of an unsuccessful candidate, the candidate's completed Donation Statement/Statutory Declaration and accompanying documentation.

1.7.5 When the Standards Commission has received the relevant statutory documentation and is satisfied as to its correct completion, it will issue a reimbursement application to the candidate. The Standards Commission will not issue an application for a reimbursement of election expenses until the correctly completed documentation has been received.

1.7.6 On receipt of the completed application, the Standards Commission will certify to the Department of Public Expenditure, NDP Delivery and Reform the amount which should be reimbursed to the candidate [Section 107(3)]. The Department of Public Expenditure, NDP Delivery and Reform pays the reimbursement of election expenses by electronic funds transfer. To facilitate this payment to the candidate's bank account, the Department requires candidate bank account and contact details. This information is not made available to the public.

1.7.7 The reimbursement is made to the candidate by the Department of Public Expenditure, NDP Delivery and Reform and is not regarded as a donation to the candidate.

1.7.8 A candidate who qualifies for a reimbursement of election expenses may pass the reimbursement on to his/her political party. However, if the amount returned to the party is in excess of the amount spent by the party on the candidate the excess will be subject to donation limits. If the donation amount exceeds €1,500 it must then be declared by the party in their annual donation statement returns.

For example:

Amount Spent by Party on Candidate	€ 20,000
Amount Reimbursed to Party by Candidate	€ 21,750
Amount Donated to Party	€ 1,750

NOTE: €2,500 is the maximum donation that a political party can receive.

1.8 Offences and penalties applicable to candidates at the election

1.8.1 There are criminal offences for non-compliance with certain requirements in the 1997 Act. Some offences are punishable on summary conviction by a fine, whereas others are punishable on indictment by either a fine or imprisonment. Some offences apply to candidates, mayoral election agents or third parties and others are capable of applying to any person involved in electoral spending.

The offences under the 1997 Act in relation to the Limerick Mayoral Election, other than those exclusively applying to mayoral election agents, are summarised in the table below. Candidates and others should refer to the provisions of the 1997 Act for further detail.

Candidates should also be aware of the specific offences applicable to mayoral election agents set out in section 2 below. Offences applicable to a mayoral election agent will apply to the candidate where (1) the candidate has appointed his or herself to be a mayoral election agent, or (2) the candidate is deemed to be the mayoral election agent because he or she has failed to appoint, and notify the mayoral returning officer of the name and address of, a mayoral election agent.

Summary proceedings for offences may be brought and prosecuted by the Standards Commission. In any other case, the matter may be referred to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

Chapter 2 - Candidates' Mayoral Election Agents and other persons

The key issues of which the mayoral election agent of a candidate or an 'other person' at the election should be aware in order to ensure compliance with the requirements of the legislation are as follows:

- 2.1 Appointment of a mayoral election agent
- 2.2 Main functions of a mayoral election agent
- 2.3 Spending limits for the election
- 2.4 Assignment by a candidate of a portion of his/her statutory spending limit to his/her political party (if contesting the election as a party candidate)
- 2.5 "The Election Period" - dates between which the spending limit applies
- 2.6 Persons who may be incurring unauthorised expenditure to promote or oppose candidates at the election
- 2.7 What are election expenses?
- 2.8 What are not election expenses?
- 2.9 Expenses incurred in order to facilitate a person's candidacy at the election
- 2.10 Payment of invoices to suppliers
- 2.11 Furnishing an Election Expenses Statement after the election
- 2.12 Offences and penalties applicable to mayoral election agents at the election

2.1 Appointment of a mayoral election agent

2.1.1 Each candidate must appoint a mayoral election agent [Section 99(1)(a)(i)]. For the purposes of this Act, the mayoral election agent is the person who is responsible for accounting for expenses incurred on the candidate's behalf during the election campaign.

The mayoral election agent must have an office or place in or convenient to the Limerick City and County Electoral Area (within the meaning of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the 2024 Act) to which claims, notices, writs, summonses and other documents may be sent [Section 99(6)].

2.1.2 The candidate must supply the name and office address of the mayoral election agent, in writing, to the Returning Officer for the constituency in which the candidate is standing [Section 99(1)(a)(ii)]. This must be done not later than the last day for receiving nominations at the election, 12 noon, 18 May 2024. The Returning Officer will subsequently provide the mayoral election agent's details to the Standards Commission [Section 99(5)].

2.1.3 The mayoral election agent shall as soon as may be notify the Commission in writing and give public notice of the name and the address of the office of every mayoral election agent appointed or deemed to have been appointed under section 99 [Section 99(5)]. The Standards Commission has issued a form to Returning Officers which a candidate may use to give details of his/her mayoral election agent. It is very important that the correct details of the person appointed as mayoral election agent (i.e., the person who will account for expenditure on the candidate's campaign) are notified to the Returning Officer on this form.

The Standards Commission will only accept an Election Expenses Statement from the person notified to it by the Returning Officer as the candidate's mayoral election agent. The mayoral election agent should ensure that the candidate has notified his/her correct details to the Returning Officer.

2.1.4 A candidate may act as his/her own mayoral election agent [Section 99(1)(b)]. A candidate who does not notify the Returning Officer of the appointment of a mayoral election agent by the deadline for withdrawing as a candidate he/she will be deemed to be acting as his/her own mayoral election agent [Section 99(1)(c)].

A candidate acting as his/her own mayoral election agent is required to comply with the requirements of the Act both as a candidate and as a mayoral election agent. The candidate can revoke the appointment of his/her mayoral election agent at any time. If this situation arises, it is the candidate only who MUST notify the Returning Officer, in writing, of the revocation of one mayoral election agent and the appointment of another, along with contact details.

Following notification of a change of mayoral election agent, the Returning Officer must notify the Standards Commission, in writing, of the revocation of one mayoral election agent and the appointment of another, along with the new contact details.

The Standards Commission cannot accept an Election Expenses Statement (EES) if the mayoral election agent notified to it by the Returning Officer does not match the name of the mayoral election agent on the EES [Section 99(3)].

2.2 Main functions of a mayoral election agent

- 2.2.1 The mayoral election agent is the key link for the Standards Commission in relation to expenditure incurred on the candidate's behalf at the election. He/she should be comfortable with keeping accounts.
- 2.2.2 The main function of the mayoral election agent is to authorise and control spending connected to the candidate's election campaign and to account for such spending.
- 2.2.3 Subject to what is stated below, the mayoral election agent is the only person who may incur expenditure or make payments on behalf of the candidate [Section 101(3)]. All invoices, receipts or vouchers must be provided to the mayoral election agent and retained by him/her for the purposes of completing his/her Election Expenses Statement.
- 2.2.4 A candidate cannot incur any expenses or make any payments in relation to the election campaign without being authorised to do so by the mayoral election agent. It is an offence for a candidate to incur expenses or make payments, other than in respect of "his/her reasonable living expenses", unless authorised to do so by the mayoral election agent. (See below for an explanation of what is meant by "reasonable living expenses".) Where expenses have been incurred by or on behalf of a candidate before the appointment of a mayoral election agent, the candidate must furnish details of such expenses, together with all invoices/receipts, to the mayoral election agent once he/she has been appointed [Section 101(6)].
- 2.2.5 The mayoral election agent may authorise other persons to incur expenditure or make payments within specified financial limits [Section 101(3)]. The mayoral election agent must account for spending by all such authorised persons. Expenses incurred or payments made by authorised persons must be within the limit specified by the mayoral election agent. A mayoral election agent may authorise the candidate to incur election expenses. The name and address of every authorised person must be included in the Election Expenses Statement, which the mayoral election agent must furnish to the Standards Commission after the election.

2.3 Spending limits for the election

- 2.3.1 The statutory spending limit at Limerick mayoral elections is €72,100. This spending limit is inclusive of VAT. All spending by the mayoral election agent on a candidate must be within this limit [S.I No. 87/2004 – Electoral Act 1997 (Section 3) Order 2004].

2.4 "The Election Period" - dates between which the spending limit applies

- 2.4.1 The spending limits at the Limerick mayoral election apply to all expenses incurred and payments made in providing property, goods or services which are used for electoral purposes during the "election period". The election period commences on the date of the order appointing polling day and ending on polling day itself, both dates included [Section 102(2)]. The election period for the 2024 Limerick mayoral election is from 8 April 2024 to 7 June 2024.

2.4.2 Regardless of when the expenses are incurred or the payments are made, they must be taken into account if they relate to property, goods or services which are used for electoral purposes during the election period. Accordingly, expenses which are incurred or payments which are made at any time before the date of the order appointing polling day, on property, goods or services which are used during the election period must be accounted for [Section 93(1)].

2.4.3 If expenses are incurred or payments are made on property, goods or services which were not used, or only a part was used, during the election period it will not be necessary to account for the unused part. Similarly, it will not be necessary to account for expenses incurred or payments made in respect of property, goods or services which were used before the commencement of the election period or which were used after the election period. Some examples of this might be:

- promotional material circulated by candidates/political parties before the election period commenced;
- insurance or rent costs applying to a campaign premises in so far as the costs relate to a period before and/or after the election period;
- "Thank you" notices circulated after the election. Please see 2.9 for further details.

2.4.4 For example if an advertisement is published in a newspaper or other periodical publication which carries a publication date (i.e., the date printed on the paper) which is during the election period, the advertisement will be regarded as an election expense. If the publication date is before or after the election period, the advertisement is not regarded as an election expense.

2.4.5 The cost of an opinion poll or other similar survey which is taken within the period of 60 days before polling day will be regarded as an election expense [Schedule, paragraph 1(g)].

2.5 Persons who may be incurring unauthorised expenditure to promote or oppose candidates at the election

(a) Expenditure by "third parties"/"other persons"

2.5.1 Expenditure by "third parties" and "other persons", i.e., those not connected to a candidate or a political party, is permitted under the Act provided the third party/other person has notified the Standards Commission of their intent to incur election expenses.

Mayoral election agents should notify the Standards Commission if they become aware of third parties or other persons incurring election expenditure either promoting or opposing a political party of candidate.

2.5.2 Notices or advertisements in newspapers, magazines or other periodical publications promoting or opposing the interests of a candidate may only be placed if requested by the candidate, the candidate's mayoral election agent, the national agent of the candidate's political party or a person authorised in writing by the candidate or either agent.

"Third parties" and "other persons" may arrange newspaper advertising if they produce to the publisher a Certificate of Authorisation from the Standards Commission stating that they have furnished, in writing, the relevant information to the Standards Commission [Section 101(8)]. The Standards Commission will notify editors/publishers of the provisions of the Act in this regard.

2.5.3 "Third parties"/"Other Persons" who incur election expenses will also have to account for their election expenses in an Election Expenses Statement [Section 106(1)(b)].

(b) Expenditure by a local party organisation

2.5.4 No separate or additional spending by a political party over and above the statutory spending limit is allowed. Any expenditure incurred on behalf of the candidate by the local party organisation should be authorised by the mayoral election agent and taken into account in the mayoral election agent's Election Expenses Statement.

(c) Expenditure by local and European election candidates

2.5.5 As the 2024 local and European elections are being held on the same day as the Limerick mayoral election, there is the possibility that Limerick mayoral election candidates will be mentioned in local or European election candidates' promotional material and advertising. This will be regarded as promoting the candidacy of the Limerick mayoral election candidate and also as expenditure incurred on behalf of that candidate.

2.5.6 A local or European election candidate, director of elections, etc., who intends to include a reference to a Limerick mayoral election candidate in local or European election promotional material, advertising, etc., must be authorised to do so by the Limerick mayoral election candidate's mayoral election agent. A person who incurs such expenditure on behalf of a Limerick mayoral election candidate without being authorised to do so, may be guilty of an offence.

2.5.7 Where a Limerick mayoral election candidate is featured in local or European election material or advertising which is used during the election period, the extent to which he/she is featured should be used as a basis for calculating the amount of expenses deemed to have been incurred on behalf of the Limerick mayoral election candidate.

If the amount deemed to have been incurred is less than €127 and has been borne by the local or European election candidate it will be regarded as a minor expense and should be accounted for as such. If the expenditure exceeds €127 it will have to be accounted for in the Election Expenses Statement furnished to the Standards Commission by the mayoral election agent or national agent who authorised the election expense.

(d) Expenditure by persons/bodies deemed to be connected to a candidate

2.5.8 Mayoral election agents should be aware that if a person or a body, who or which is considered by the Standards Commission to be associated with, connected to, or under the influence or control of a candidate, is incurring expenses at the election to either promote the candidate or to oppose another candidate, such expenses will be regarded as part of the first candidate's election expenses and will have to be taken into account by that candidate's mayoral election agent from within the candidate's spending limit [Section 101(4)(d)]. If this expenditure brings spending by the candidate's mayoral election agent over the relevant limit, an offence will have been committed.

2.5.9 Given that expenditure by certain individuals/groups may ultimately be deemed to be expenditure incurred on behalf of their candidates, it is important that mayoral election agents are aware of the activities of such individual/groups and, if necessary bring such matters to the attention of the Standards Commission.

2.6 What are election expenses?

2.6.1 The legislation provides that election expenses are those and only those, set out in the definition of election expenses in Appendix 1, which are incurred in the provision of property, goods or services for use during the election period [Section 93(1) & Schedule 1 to the 1997 Act] (8 April 2024 to 7 June 2024) in order to:

- promote or, directly or indirectly, the election of a candidate at the Limerick mayoral election or to solicit votes for or against a candidate; or
- present the policies or a particular policy of a candidate or the views of a candidate on any matter connected with the Limerick mayoral election or the comments of a candidate on the policy or policies of another candidate at the Limerick mayoral election; or
- otherwise to influence the outcome of a Limerick mayoral election.

2.6.2 Where property, goods or services, which have been provided free or below cost, are used during the election period, they are regarded as election expenses which must be taken into account as election spending by the relevant agent at their commercial price [Section 101(1)]. [An example might be where a printing company agrees to provide, free of charge, election literature which would normally cost €1,500.] This supply of material must be authorised and taken into account at its commercial price less any normal discount which may be available.

It should be noted that where free or below cost services are provided by a business/company they cannot exceed the value of €200 unless the business/ company is registered as a corporate donor with the Standards Commission (see paragraph 1.4.4).

2.6.3 Election expenses include payments to paid campaign workers where receipted.

2.6.4 It is not possible to give definitive examples in these guidelines of all types of election expenses. If you are unsure as to whether an expense item should be accounted for as an election expense you should contact the Standards Commission Secretariat for advice.

Election Expenses which are met out of public funds

2.6.5 Where publicly funded property, services or facilities are used for electoral purposes, the cost of such use must be reimbursed to the relevant provider. Such costs must then be accounted for as an election expense. The use of any such material must be authorised by the candidate's mayoral election agent. It will be a matter for the relevant agent and the candidate, in consultation with the provider of the property, services or facilities, to determine the value of the usage for electoral purposes during the election period and to account for same in the election expenses statement. [Examples of this type of expenditure include the use of publicly funded facilities such as prepaid envelopes, telephones, staff time etc.]

- 2.6.6 Candidates at the election who are holders of elected/public office may be required to communicate with the electorate during the election period. Where costs are met from public funds, it is necessary to differentiate between the use of public resources in carrying out their representative business and the use of public resources for electoral purposes. Any use of their publicly funded facilities for their own electoral purposes must be accounted for as an election expense.
- 2.6.7 If, during the election period, publicly funded materials are used by the candidate for the purpose of any form of unsolicited communication to any of the electorate, the materials will be regarded as having been used for electoral purposes and the costs will have to be accounted for as an election expense at their full commercial value.
- 2.6.8 Where a new enquiry is raised with a candidate in his/her capacity as a candidate (including an enquiry which had not been raised with the candidate prior to the election) while he/she is canvassing and facilities the cost of which are met out of public funds are used for the purposes of responding to the enquiry, these facilities will be regarded as having been used for electoral purposes. This includes time spent by staff in responding to the enquiry (except where such staff are working voluntarily on the candidate's campaign).
- 2.6.9 Members of the Oireachtas are reminded that publicly funded facilities are provided to them solely for their own use as public representatives. These publicly funded facilities should not be provided to other candidates for electoral purposes and to do so may have serious consequences under the Ethics in Public Office Acts 1995 and 2001, in addition to amounting to an election expense which must be accounted for.

2.7 What are not election expenses?

2.7.1 Items which are not election expenses include:

- free post service provided to candidates by An Post (i.e., Litir Um Thoghcháin) [Schedule paragraph 2(a); Section 22(2)(b)(i)]. It should be noted that only the postage costs are not regarded as an election expense. The cost of producing the leaflet/election address/Litir um Thoghcháin is an election expense;
- a free service provided by an individual, including use of the individual's motor vehicle, telephone, etc., where the service is not provided as part of the individual's work or business [Schedule paragraph 2(a); Section 22(2)(b)(iii)(I)]. [NOTE: This provision of the Act refers specifically to an individual and to the use of an individual's motor vehicle (singular). If more than one vehicle is provided by an individual, the use of the additional vehicles may be regarded as election expenses. If a vehicle which is in the ownership of a company, partnership, business etc., is provided to a candidate it is not regarded as a free service provided by an individual. In such circumstances the use of the vehicle during the election period is regarded as an election expense. The commercial cost of hiring a similar vehicle for a similar period must be ascertained for the purposes of calculating the election expense.];

- normal media coverage [Schedule paragraph 2(a); Section 22(2)(b)(iv)]. This does not cover any production, or other, costs associated with a transmission on radio or television;
- advertising outside of election period - advertisements which appeared in a newspaper which had a publication date which was outside the election period e.g., "Thank you" advertisements in newspapers after polling day.
- election expenses incurred at a previous Dáil, European or local election which were disclosed in an Election Expenses Statement furnished to the Standards Commission or to a local authority [Schedule paragraph 2(b)]. There is no need to record these expenses again. This does not apply to material used in relation to a referendum.

[NOTE: If a candidate intends to use, or re-use, election material which has previously been recorded in an Election Expenses Statement, his/her mayoral election agent must notify the Standards Commission Secretariat and provide details of the materials being re-used and the Election Expenses Statement on which they were previously recorded.]

- the payment of fees incurred to secure the nomination, for example the deposit in respect of the candidate or the travelling or other expenses incurred by a candidate in obtaining assenters to secure the nomination of the candidate [Schedule paragraph 2(d) & (dd)];
- the cost of purchasing copies of the register of electors [Schedule paragraph 2(e)];
- the reasonable living expenses (including accommodation) of a candidate and volunteers working on his/her behalf [Schedule paragraph 2(f)]. Under this heading, in addition to accommodation costs, spending of up to €50 per person per day on refreshments, etc., is permitted and does not have to be accounted for. (This means that accommodation costs plus other costs up to €50 per person per day are not regarded as election expenses.);
- Expenses for refreshments for the candidate and volunteer campaign workers where the amount incurred per day on any one person did not exceed the amount determined by the Standards Commission as constituting reasonable living expenses.
- any paid campaign worker who incurs minor expenses (not exceeding €127 in any one payment) lawfully incurred in relation to the election if the said sum is not repaid to the person. (In simple terms this means that an individual may pay for small items costing less than €127 and these are not election expenses if the individual does not seek a reimbursement from the mayoral election agent) [Schedule paragraph 2(g)].

[NOTE: The only persons who may lawfully incur expenses or make payments at an election in relation to a candidate are the mayoral election agent of a candidate or a person authorised by the mayoral election agent to incur election expenses.

Accordingly, any other person who incurs expenses or makes payments at an election on behalf of a candidate is committing an offence.

Mayoral election agents must maintain a record of all minor expenses which are not being accounted for as an election expense in his/her Election Expenses Statement. In order to deal with any questions which may arise as to why expenses in respect of particular items used during the election period are not shown as an election expense in the Election Expenses Statement, a record of all such "minor expenses" may be required to be furnished to the Standards Commission. Invoices, receipts and vouchers in respect of minor expenses may also be required and should be retained by the mayoral election agent. Minor expenses are not included in the calculation of the total election expenses incurred.]

- volunteers who take annual leave, e.g. where an outgoing MEP's staff or Oireachtas Member's staff (such as a personal assistant, research assistant, etc.) takes annual leave and works on a candidate's election campaign on a voluntary basis during the election period, the work carried out by the member of staff will be deemed to have been carried out as a free service and the cost of his/her salary while working voluntarily will not be regarded as election expenses for the purpose of the 1997 Act;
- fines imposed by organs of the State, e.g., parking and litter fines;
- the services of an accountant, or other person, (whether paid or not) employed for the specific purpose of ensuring compliance with the requirements of the 1997 Act;
- the use of offices which are owned by a political party and are made available to a candidate for use at the election. It is not necessary to attribute a notional rental cost to the use of such offices. However, the costs of heat, light, telephones, etc., incurred for electoral purposes at such offices during the election period are election expenses.
- Removal of election posters (if removed after polling day).
- Other Election Material outside Election Period, such as "Thank you" cards, leaflets, newsletters, etc., which were distributed outside of the election period.
- Use of private telephones (including mobile phones) where the expense incurred was not reimbursed to the person.
- Transport and Travel, including diesel/petrol costs which were not reimbursed to the person.
- "Close of poll" party.

This list is not exhaustive. If you have any queries relating to expense items which you may incur during the election period, the Standards Commission Secretariat is available to assist when completing the Election Expenses Statement.

2.8 Other expenses incurred in order to facilitate a person's candidacy at the election

2.8.1 Certain expenses may have to be incurred on behalf of the candidate in order to facilitate his/her participation in the election process or an understanding of the relevant legislation. The Standards Commission does not regard such expenses as being part of a candidate's or a political party's election spending. Examples might include:

- additional child care costs;
- cost of work replacements;
- leave of absence with pay;
- loan interest and bank charges;
- costs associated with meetings convened to familiarise election participants with the requirements of the electoral legislation (e.g., room hire, documents, refreshments, travel).

2.9 Payment of invoices to suppliers

2.9.1 Claims for payment of election expenses, from suppliers, must be received by the mayoral election agent within 45 days after polling day (i.e., 22 July 2024). Claims received after this date cannot be paid by the mayoral election agent [Section 104(b)].

It is an offence to make a payment if the claim is received after the 45 days have elapsed. To avoid disputes, it is very important that agents advise their suppliers of this requirement when placing orders for property, goods or services. Even though such claims cannot be paid, they are still regarded as election expenses and must be accounted for in the Election Expenses Statement furnished to the Standards Commission [Section 105].

2.10 Furnishing an Election Expenses Statement after the election

2.10.1 Shortly after the election, the Standards Commission will send each mayoral election agent an Election Expenses Statement and Statutory Declaration form [Section 106(1) & (2)]. On this form, the mayoral election agent must disclose details of all expenses incurred and payments made by, or on behalf of, the agent on property, goods or services used by the candidate during the election period. The completed form must be received by the Standards Commission within 56 days after polling day (i.e., 2 August 2024).

2.10.2 The following must be included in the Election Expenses Statement:

- details of all expenses incurred and payments made by the mayoral election agent and his/her authorised persons, including supplies of property, goods or services free or below cost which were used during the election period [Section 106(1)(a)];

- details of authorised persons (which may include the candidate or the director of elections) including the amount each authorised person was authorised to spend and the amounts actually spent by them;
- details of the amount of the candidate's spending limit which was assigned by the candidate to his/her political party [Section 106(2)]. As stated at paragraph 2.4.3 a copy of the written agreement between the candidate and the political party must be furnished by the mayoral election agent with his/her Election Expenses Statement;
- details of any disputed claims for payment [Section 105];
- information concerning late claims for payment (i.e., claims received more than 45 days after polling day) [Section 106];
- details of expenses incurred on goods, property or services used during the election period where the costs of the goods, property or services were met out of public funds.

2.10.3 A record of minor expenses may also be required to be furnished to the Standards Commission in order to deal with any questions which may arise as to why expenses in respect of particular items used during the election period are not shown as an election expense on the Election Expenses Statement. Minor expenses will not be included in the calculation of the total election expenses incurred (see above for a definition of "minor expenses").

2.10.4 Invoices, receipts or vouchers for every payment of election expenses exceeding €127 must be included with the Election Expenses Statement [Section 101(7)]. The Standards Commission also reserves the right to request any invoice, receipt or voucher for an item of expenditure valued at less than €127 appearing in an Election Expenses Statement or a record of minor expenses.

2.10.5 Minor omissions or errors found by the Standards Commission in an Election Expenses Statement will be notified to the mayoral election agent. If requested to amend his/her Election Expenses Statement, the mayoral election agent must do so within 14 days [Section 4(2)].

2.10.6 The Standards Commission can request additional information from a mayoral election agent in relation to his/her Election Expenses Statement. Where such additional information is requested, it must be provided in a form determined by the Standards Commission and may have to be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration [Section 106(3)(a)].

2.10.7 The Election Expenses Statement and Statutory Declaration forms will be laid by the Standards Commission before both Houses of the Oireachtas [Section 108(2)] and will be made available to the public for inspection and copying [Section 73]. Summary details of the expenditure incurred will also be included in a report to the Chairman of Dáil Éireann [Section 4(1)] and will be published on the website of the Standards Commission.

2.11 Offences and penalties applicable to mayoral election agents at the election

2.11.1 There are criminal offences for non-compliance with certain requirements in the 1997 Act. Some offences are punishable on summary conviction by a fine, whereas others are punishable on indictment by either a fine or imprisonment. Some offences apply to candidates, mayoral election agents or third parties and others are capable of applying to any person involved in electoral spending.

The offences under the 1997 Act that apply to mayoral election agents at the Limerick Mayoral Election are summarised in the table below. Mayoral election agents should refer to the provisions of the 1997 Act for further detail.

Candidates should also be aware that the offences applicable to a mayoral election agent will apply to the candidate where (1) the candidate has appointed his or herself to be a mayoral election agent, or (2) the candidate is deemed to be the mayoral election agent because he or she has failed to appoint, and notify the mayoral returning officer of the name and address of, a mayoral election agent.

Summary proceedings for offences may be brought and prosecuted by the Standards Commission. In any other case, the matter may be referred to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

Chapter 3 – Guidance on Particular Matters

3.1 Fundraisers

3.1.1 Determining the net value of a contribution to a fund-raising event

In accordance with the provisions of sections 22(2)(a)(vi) & (vii) of the 1997 Act, a donation includes the net value of a contribution to a fund-raising event. A contribution to a fund-raising event is deemed to have been made on the date the fund-raising event is held (and not the date on which the contribution is actually received).

The net value of a contribution to an event is arrived at by first calculating the net profit from the event (i.e., by deducting the cost of running the event from the total amount raised by the event). The net profit is then attributed to the number of people contributing to the event in proportion to the contribution made by each person. This gives the net value of each person's contribution to the fund-raising event.

If, for example, in relation to a fund-raising event, a person had paid €1,000 in respect of the entry fee for 10 people, his/her gross contribution to the event would be €1,000. If the cost of running the event was €20 per person attending, a sum of €200 would be deducted from his/her gross contribution, leaving a net contribution of €800. If the person made other contributions to the event (e.g., buying horses at a race night, sponsoring a hole at a golf classic) it would be necessary to add the value of such contributions to the net contribution of €800 for the purposes of determining the aggregate net value of his/her contribution to the fund-raising event.

The following paragraphs set out the legislative requirements in relation to different types of fund-raising events which may be organised in the context of an election.

3.1.2 Fund-raisers organised by a political party for the purposes of raising funds for the party

Where a fund-raising event is organised by a political party for the purposes of raising funds for the party, the net contribution made by a person to the fund-raising event is regarded as a donation to the party. This applies even if the funds are subsequently used by the party for the purposes of supporting one or more of its candidates at an election [Sections 22(2)(a)(vii)].

If some or all of the proceedings of the event are given in the form of money to the party's candidate(s) it is regarded as a donation by the party to the candidate(s). If the proceeds are used by the party to pay election expenses incurred on the candidate's behalf, it is not regarded as a donation by the party to the candidate(s). The party will not be required to disclose in a Donation Statement the total value of the proceeds of the fund-raising event. The party will be required to disclose any donation(s) from a person which exceeds a net value of €1,500. The maximum limit of €2,500 for acceptance by political parties of donations from the same person in the same year applies to the net value of contributions to fund-raising events. The limit of €200 on acceptance of donations from non-registered corporate donors also applies. Where the net value of any individual monetary donation to the fund-raising event exceeds €100, the accounting unit of the party, (i.e., branch or head office) which organised the event will, if it does not already have one, be required to open a political donations account. If the net value of any individual monetary donation to the event does not exceed €100, the accounting unit of the party will not be required to open a political donations account. If the accounting unit already has a political donations account, all monetary donations, of whatever value, received in relation to the event must be lodged to the political donations account.

3.1.3 Fund-raisers organised by a political party for the purposes of raising funds for its candidate(s) at the election

Where a fund raising event is organised by a political party for the purposes of raising funds for its candidate(s) at the election and proceeds of the event are passed to the candidate(s), the party is regarded as an intermediary accepting donations on behalf of the candidate(s). The net contribution made by a person to the fund-raising event is regarded as a donation to the candidate(s). The candidate(s) (i.e., not the party) is responsible for the donation and must ensure that he/she complies with the legislative requirements.

If it is the case, however, that the party retains control of the proceeds, the donations may be regarded as having been made to the party and the party will be responsible for ensuring that the legislative requirements are complied with.

3.1.4 Fund-raisers organised by a candidate

Where a fund-raising event is organised by a candidate for the purposes of raising funds for his/her election campaign, contributions to the event are deemed to be donations to the candidate [Sections 22(2)(a)(vi)].

The candidate will not be required to disclose in a Donation Statement the total value of the proceeds of the fund-raising event. The candidate will be required to disclose any donations from a person contributing to the event which exceed a net value of €600. The maximum limit of €1,000, for acceptance by candidates of donations from any one person in the same year, applies to the net value of contributions to fund-raising events. If the net value of any monetary donation to a fund-raising event organised by a candidate exceeds €100, the candidate, if he/she does not already have one, will be required to open a political donations account and lodge the donation and all subsequent monetary donations to the account. If the net value of an individual monetary donation to the event does not exceed €100, the candidate will not be required to open a political donations account. If the candidate already has a political donations account, all monetary donations, of whatever value, received in relation to the event must be lodged to the account.

3.1.5 Fund-raisers organised on behalf of a candidate by a person or group other than the candidate or his/her political party

Where a fund-raising event is organised on behalf of a candidate by a person or group other than the candidate or his/her political party (e.g., "Friends of ... groups") and the proceeds of the event are handed over to the candidate, the fund-raising person/group is regarded as an intermediary accepting donations on the candidate's behalf. The donations are deemed to have been received by the candidate and he/she is responsible for ensuring that the legislative requirements (set out at 3.1.4 above) are complied with.

If the proceeds of the event are not handed over to the candidate and are retained by the fund-raising group, the following applies:

- if the net value of any donation to the fund-raising event exceeds €100, the person/group will be required to register as a "third party" with the Standards Commission. The person/group will be required to:
- comply with the provisions of the Act applying to third parties with regard to the opening of a political donations account and the acceptance of certain donations,
- all money subsequently given to the candidate and all election expenses incurred or payments made by the fund-raising group on behalf of the candidate are regarded as donations to the candidate,
- if the aggregate value of donations from the fund-raising group to the candidate exceeds €600, the candidate will be required to disclose details of same in his/her Donation Statement, and
- the maximum value of donations which the candidate can accept in any year from a fund-raising person/group which is regarded as a third party (and not as an intermediary accepting donations on the candidate's behalf) is €1,000.

3.2 Advertising on vehicles

- 3.2.1 The adaptation ("wrapping") of cars, jeeps, vans, etc., with a candidate's or a political party's livery is an election expense as it promotes a person's candidacy and/or a political party's interests at the election. If such vehicles are used during the election period, the full costs of producing the advertising on the vehicles is an election expense.
- 3.2.2 The Standards Commission is aware, however, that some public representatives use mobile constituency clinics which are already "wrapped" in the public representative's or political party's livery. The Standards Commission is of the view that where such vehicles have been used on an ongoing basis and are "wrapped" with livery which is of a general nature and is not explicitly seeking to promote a person's candidacy and/or a political party's interests at the election, the costs of adapting these vehicles will not be regarded as an election expense even if the vehicles are used during the election period.
- 3.2.3 If, however, a mobile office is being used purely for the election or has been "wrapped" with livery which explicitly promotes a person's candidacy, a party's interests or which solicits votes for a candidate and/or a political party at the election, then the cost of adapting the vehicle is regarded as an election expense and, if the vehicle is used during the election period, the full cost of adapting the vehicle must be accounted for.
- 3.2.4 Where it is intended not to account for advertising / livery on a campaign vehicle on the basis that the advertising / livery is not for electoral purposes the relevant agent should contact the Standards Commission for confirmation that the advertising / livery is not an election expense.

3.3 Vandalised or damaged posters

3.3.1 The position of the Standards Commission with regard to vandalised or damaged posters is that if a poster is erected during the election period (8 April 2024 to 7 June 2024), it is regarded as having been used during the election period and must be accounted for as an election expense even if the poster falls down, is vandalised, etc. before polling day. The cost of replacing vandalised or damaged posters is also an election expense if the replacement posters are used during the election period.

3.4 Use of staff whose salaries are met out of public funds

3.4.1 The 1997 Act provides that goods, property or services where the costs are met from public funds and which are used for electoral purposes during the election period shall be reimbursed and regarded as election expenses.

3.4.2 If a member of staff (i.e., special adviser, constituency secretary, driver, personal assistant, research assistant, etc.) of a holder of elected/public office is engaged in his/her normal duties during the election period and is not providing a service which is for electoral purposes, then the cost of carrying out such activities is not regarded as an election expense. Where such staff are engaged in activities which are for electoral purposes, their costs will be regarded as an election expense. It will be a matter for the holder of public office, in conjunction with his/her mayoral election agent and the provider of the services, to determine the extent to which such staff have been engaged for electoral purposes during the election period and to account for it on the mayoral election agent's Election Expenses Statement.

3.4.3 Certain holders of public office are provided with State cars and Garda drivers for security reasons. Accordingly, the use of State cars in these cases, including drivers, during the election period is not an election expense as the cars and drivers are provided as a security measure and these office holders are required to use them at all times.

3.4.4 However, some holders of elected/public office provide their own cars and appoint civilian drivers who are paid out of public funds. The use of cars and drivers by such persons for electoral purposes during the election period is an election expense. While they can claim travel expenses when the car is used for official business, its use for electoral purposes would not qualify as official business for the purposes of such claims.

3.4.5 Where a member of staff of a holder of elected/public office takes annual leave to work on an election campaign on a voluntary basis during the election period, the work carried out by them will be deemed to have been carried out as a free service and, notwithstanding the fact that this work may be similar to their normal work, the cost of their salaries while working voluntarily will not be regarded as election expenses for the purposes of the 1997 Act.

3.4.6 The Standards Commission recommends, however, that, in case there is a challenge to the election expenses statement submitted by a holder of elected/public office, such candidates should ensure that proper records of holidays accrued and taken by staff are maintained. The Standards Commission may require written confirmation that the staff concerned have taken leave during the election period.

3.5 Free use of vehicles

3.5.1 Part 1(f) of the Schedule to the Act provides that election expenses on transport and travel include "expenses incurred on transport and travel (by any means), petrol and diesel, rental or use of campaign vehicles, rental or use of vehicles for transport of voters on polling day, accommodation costs, taxi and hackney services and courier services."

3.5.2 Part 2(a) of the Schedule to the 1997 Act provides that any of the matters referred to in Section 22(2)(b)(i) and 22(2)(b)(iii - v) of the 1997 Act will not be regarded as an election expense. The 1997 Act also provides that the matters at section 22(2)(b) (i - vii) shall not be regarded as donations.

3.5.3 Section 22(b)(iii)(I) of the Act provides that a service rendered by an individual, including the use of the individual's motor vehicle, is not regarded as a donation or as an election expense where the service is not provided as part of the individual's work or business. Section 22(b)(iii)(I) specifically refers to an individual and an individual's motor vehicle. Therefore, where an individual provides a candidate with the free use of a single vehicle at the election it is not regarded as either a donation to the candidate or as an election expense. If, however, the individual normally charges for use of the vehicle in question it would be regarded as a donation and an election expense. If more than one vehicle is provided by the individual, the additional vehicles may be regarded as donations and as election expenses.

3.5.4 As stated above the reference in section 22(b)(iii)(I) is specifically to an individual. If a vehicle which is in the ownership of a company, partnership, business etc. is provided to a candidate it is not regarded as a free service provided by an individual. In such circumstances, therefore, use of the vehicle is regarded as a donation and as an election expense. The commercial cost of hiring a similar vehicle for a similar period must be ascertained for the purposes of disclosing its value as a donation and for the purposes of disclosing its use during the election period, as an election expense.

3.6 Accounting for the use of offices during the election period

a) General

In relation to office and stationery, the Act provides that election expenses include "costs incurred in the rental or use of an office premises or meeting rooms for election purposes (other than for the purposes of annual or other party conferences) and the costs of heating, electricity, insurance, purchase or rental of office equipment, telephones, stationery and postage".

Accordingly, expenses incurred in the rental of an office are regarded as election expenses. Rental paid in respect of the election period must be accounted for on the Election Expenses Statement.

Where use of an office is provided free or below cost, the full commercial value of the use of the office for election purposes during the election period is regarded as an election expense and must be accounted for. In determining the commercial value, account may be taken of the condition of the office. Allowances may also be made for any discount which is normally given or generally available.

The provision without charge of an office in a person's private dwelling, where the room provided is not available for renting in the normal course, is not an election expense. Any expense incurred, however, in carrying out alterations to facilitate its use for election purposes during the election period is an election expense.

b) Use of public representative offices

The use by a holder of elected/public office of his/her publicly funded office location for electoral purposes is regarded as an election expense. The extent to which the office has been used for electoral purposes during the election period should be taken into account. Ancillary costs such as salaries, heat, light, phones, fax, copying, printing, stationery, postage, envelopes, etc. which such costs have been incurred for electoral purposes must be taken into account.

The use of publicly funded offices for election purposes during the election period is also an election expense. This includes the costs of salaries and expenses of civil servants or special advisers, these they are engaged in activities for election purposes during the election period, as well as other ancillary costs such as heat, light, phones, fax, copying, printing, stationery, postage, envelopes, etc. where such costs have been incurred for electoral purposes.

c) Accounting for offices which are owned by a candidate or political party

Notional rental costs for the use of an office which is owned by a candidate are not required to be accounted for as election expenses. Similarly, where a political party owns an office in a constituency which is used by its candidate(s) during an election campaign, neither the party nor the candidate are required to apply notional rental costs for the use of these offices. Any expenses, however, incurred in carrying out alterations to facilitate its use for election purposes during the election period are required to be accounted for.

d) Notional costs of site rental for posters or other election material

Notional costs of site rental where posters or other material are erected/displayed in or around private properties or commercial premises which are not recognised sites for such purpose are not required to be accounted for as election expenses.
